

William Nhieu serves as communications director for the Hawaii Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs (DCCA), managing departmental-wide communications for DCCA and its twelve divisions on complex regulatory subjects including insurance, consumer protection, public utilities, licensing, and business operations.

He previously served in various leadership capacities at the Hawaii State Legislature and as an appointee in the Honolulu Mayor's Office.